

Plates for the Community

Thanksgiving Takeout

SOLD OUT!

Since 2013, community members have celebrated their Thanksgiving at Plates Neighborhood Kitchen because of the fantastic food, warm atmosphere, and most importantly, the knowledge that their contributions go towards people in need.

To celebrate the restaurant's eighth annual Thanksgiving charity initiative, Plates Neighborhood Kitchen is partnering with Food Bank of Central and Eastern North Carolina on "Plates for the Community." This year, Plates wants to make sure they can still provide the same level of satisfaction while keeping everyone safe during this unprecedented time.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, this year's event is exclusively family-style takeout. Plates is offering Thanksgiving meal packages designed to feed six people in the comfort of their own homes. Owners of Plates, Steve Day and Justin Gallus, have pledged to provide a $20 donation to the aforementioned charity for each package sold. The donation from each package purchased is enough to provide 100 meals for those in need right here in our local community.

Each package feeds six to eight people and includes:

- ❖ Roast Turkey Breast and Leg Confit
- ❖ Smoked Gravy
- ❖ Roasted Garlic Mashed Potatoes
- ❖ Sweet Potato Hash
- ❖ Herb Stuffing
- ❖ Cranberry Sauce
- ❖ Roasted Brussels Sprouts & Cauliflower
- ❖ Union Special Baguette with House Butter
- ❖ Choice of Figgy Pudding or Pecan Pie

$129 per package. Please place your order by calling us at 919-828-0018 or emailing Justin at justin@plateskitchen.com.

Orders accepted until Monday, November 23 at 5:00 pm.

Pickups will take place Wednesday-Thursday, November 25-26 between 9am and 12pm each day. Each package will include comprehensive reheating instructions.
