

Plates for the Community

Thanksgiving Takeout

Since 2013, community members have celebrated their Thanksgiving at Plates Neighborhood Kitchen because of the fantastic food, warm atmosphere, and most importantly, the knowledge that their contributions go towards people in need.

To celebrate the restaurant's ninth annual Thanksgiving charity initiative, Plates Neighborhood Kitchen is partnering with Food Bank of Central and Eastern North Carolina on "Plates for the Community."

Chef David Mitchell is offering scratch-made, gourmet Thanksgiving meal packages designed to feed six people in the comfort of their own homes. Owners of Plates, Steve Day and Justin Gallus, have pledged to provide a $25 donation to the aforementioned charity for each package sold. The donation from each package purchased is enough to provide 125 meals for those in need right here in our local community.

Each package feeds six to eight people and includes:

- ❖ Roast Turkey Breast and Leg Confit
- ❖ Smoked Gravy
- ❖ Roasted Garlic Mashed Potatoes
- ❖ Sweet Potato Casserole
- ❖ Herb Stuffing
- ❖ Cranberry Sauce
- ❖ Roasted Brussels Sprouts & Cauliflower
- ❖ Union Special Baguette with House Butter
- ❖ Choice of Figgy Pudding or Pecan Pie

$159 per package. Please place your order by calling us at 919-828-0018 (ask for Stephanie or Mike) or emailing us at info@plateskitchen.com.

Orders accepted until Monday, November 22 at 5:00 pm. Pickups will take place Wednesday, November 24 between 9am and 2pm. Each package will include comprehensive reheating instructions.
